

THE NATIONAL ACADEMY OF TELEVISION
ARTS AND SCIENCES
ANNOUNCES WINNERS
AT THE 39th ANNUAL
NEWS & DOCUMENTARY EMMY® AWARDS

Paula S. Apsell, Senior Executive Producer, PBS' NOVA Receives Lifetime Achievement Award

New York, N.Y. – October 1, 2018 (revised 10.31.18) – Winners of the 39th Annual News and Documentary Emmy® Awards were announced tonight by the National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences (NATAS). The News & Documentary Emmy® Awards were presented at a ceremony at Jazz at Lincoln Center's Frederick P. Rose Hall in New York City.

"I'm particularly proud to be here for tonight's celebration of News and Documentaries, given the intersection at which we find journalism and political discourse these days," said Terry O'Reilly, Chairman, NATAS. "At a time when some seek to perpetuate politically useful falsehoods in the furtherance of partisan ideology, we have never needed our nation's journalists and documentarians more."

"It is more important than ever that we recognize and defend our peers' integrity, clarity, and dedication to the First Amendment's protected mandate," said Adam Sharp, Interim-President & CEO, NATAS. "This year's nominees are shining examples of that ethic. Their stories took us to the front lines of war and disaster, cast light into hidden corners of government and the corporate boardroom, and revealed both the outermost reaches of space and the innermost complexities of the human body. In addition, we are honored to be celebrating the work of Paula Apsell with our Lifetime Achievement Award. Her explorations of science continue to inform and inspire millions of viewers as she continues to take PBS' NOVA to new heights."

The event was attended by more than 1,000 television and news media industry executives, news and documentary producers and journalists. Emmy® Awards were presented in 49 categories.

This year's award presenters included:

- Kate Bolduan, anchor, CNN's morning show, At This Hour and formerly co-anchored New Day and The Situation Room with Wolf Blitzer. She also contributed to CNN's award-winning coverage of the 2012 & 2016 Presidential elections.
- Ana Cabrera, anchors the weekend primetime edition of CNN Newsroom and throughout 2017 and 2018 has extensively covered the DACA deal, the white nationalist rally in Charlottesville, VA, Hurricanes Harvey and Maria, the Southerland Springs, TX church shootings and many of the top breaking news stories of the year.
