

HONOR CODE

All information supplied to the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences Foundation for the purposes of consideration in any scholarship competition must be accurate and is subject to verification.

By submitting an application for the NATAS Scholarships, you are certifying that:

1. your grades and test scores are being reported accurately;
2. your essays and other written responses are your work alone, without inappropriate assistance from others or the inclusion of unattributed text authored by others;
3. your representation of your involvement in creative works, school activities, and field or work experience is completely truthful;
4. your creative works, to the extent they include the work of others, are submitted with the full awareness and consent of the original creators; and
5. you intend to apply any scholarship fund awarded towards a college-level education in a major aligned to pursuing a career in the television industry or related field.

Members of the Scholarship Committee and the Board of the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences Foundation determine the scholarship recipients and their decisions are final.

Applications found to have violated the letter or spirit of this Honor Code are subject to disqualification from this and future scholarship consideration and/or revocation of any scholarships awarded, at the sole discretion of the Scholarship Committee.

Questions about the Honor Code may be directed to the committee at sscholarship@TheEmmys.tv.

Your acceptance of the Honor Code and Privacy Policy is required for your application to be considered.

PRIVACY POLICY

The National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences, Inc., and the Foundation of the National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences, Inc., (collectively herein, "NATAS") use reasonable precautions to maintain the confidentiality of any information provided to it or created, input or developed in connection with the use of this website, including the encryption of information input onto this website, but because such information can be accessed through the Internet, NATAS provides no assurances that any such information, or any communication through e-mail, will remain secure. In addition, NATAS may disclose information collected on this website to its employees, representatives, officers, agents, and affiliates, as well as a governmental entity, or any other third party agent or service provider (a) for any purpose related to the conduct of NATAS's business or any contest, or providing or maintaining of any services provided on or through this website or (b) to comply with applicable rules, orders, subpoenas or other legal process, or in order to give information to any government agency or official requesting such information, or (c) for any other legitimate business purpose.

What information do we collect?

We collect information from you when you apply for the NATAS Scholarships.

When applying for the scholarships, as appropriate, you may be asked to provide your: name, e-mail address, mailing address, phone number or grades, test scores and other academic, financial, or demographic information.

What do we use your information for?

Any of the information we collect from you may be used in one of the following ways:

1. To administer the Scholarships competition
2. To send periodic emails updating you on the scholarship process and other NATAS activities
3. To advise your local NATAS chapter of your application and interest in the television industry

If you are selected for a scholarship, you grant us permission to release your name, hometown and high school name in our media announcement. We may wish to share additional biographical and contact information with journalists reporting on your selection, and will seek your prior permission before doing so.

How do we protect your information?

We implement a variety of security measures to maintain the safety of your personal information when you enter, submit, or access your personal information.

Do we disclose any information to outside parties?

Except as described above, we do not sell, trade, or otherwise transfer to outside parties your personally identifiable information. This does not include trusted third parties who assist us in operating our website or conducting the scholarship, so long as those parties agree to keep this information confidential. We may also release your information when we believe release is appropriate to comply with the law, enforce our policies, or protect ours or other's rights, property, or safety. However, non-personally identifiable applicant information may be provided to other parties for marketing, advertising, or other uses.

Changes to our Privacy Policy

If we decide to change our privacy policy, we will post those changes on the online application at TheEmmys.tv/scholarships and/or update the Privacy Policy modification date on subsequent versions of the paper application. This policy was last modified on February 18, 2021.

Contacting Us

If there are any questions regarding this privacy policy you may contact us at scholarship@TheEmmys.tv.

Your acceptance of the Honor Code and Privacy Policy is required for your application to be considered.