

CALL FOR JUDGES
44th ANNUAL NEWS & DOCUMENTARY EMMY® AWARDS

ONLINE EMMY JUDGING BEGINS MAY 11th

The National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences invites qualified individuals to serve as judges for the 44th Annual News & Documentary Emmy® Awards.

To volunteer to serve as an Emmy® judge, complete the online judging application at <https://news.theemmys.tv/en/Account/JudgeSignupLanding>

All volunteers for 2023 Emmy judging, including returning volunteers, must complete the online application.

Judging will take place:

- May 11 – 25, 2023: First Round of Emmy Judging
- June 15 - 29, 2023: Final Round of Emmy Judging

Who qualifies to serve as a judge?

- Producers, Senior & Executive Producers, Associate Producers, Directors, Reporters and Correspondents and related positions with significant experience in national news and/or documentary reporting or production.
- Craftspeople: writers, researchers, cinematographers and camerapersons, editors, graphic designers, audio technicians, composers, lighting directors, scenic designers, technical directors and other craftspeople.

Journalists and documentary makers from the worlds of broadcasting and digital/streaming media are welcome to apply.

This year's News & Documentary Emmy® judging will take place online. Approved Emmy® judges will be directed to a secure website where submissions will be viewed and voted on.

Note: Confirmation emails will come from News & Documentary Emmy® Awards. If you don't receive a confirmation email, check your spam folder.
